The blue buttons filter. Press one and these three numbers recompute together with both matrices; press it again to relea never change what is filtered. Reset All Filters releases the blue line AND the heading arrows in one press, and answers C looking at a matrix. Expand All opens every region and area; Collapse All closes them back to the four lines. Export to PD beside this file. Status lives here only, because the matrices freeze the area labels and a second group would be cut off th
